

Big radio has become a monopoly and is trying to ruin the best thing to happen to radio in 50 years-xm radio by trying to stifle their voice throughout the country. This can also be considered a private network since subscribers pay for this service. We should be entitled to local weather and traffic along with the great music programs they provide